PIN PAN ESPAÑOLITA

Jesus: hello everyone! Welcome again to our radio programme. I'm Jesus and I am the presenter of: `` Pin Pan la Española ''.

Now I am going to present our collaborators: Clara, Maria, Afra and Coral.

Collaborators: hello!

Clara: I'm Clara and I'm going to talk about Spanish culture. First of all bullfighting. There are people who consider it like an art but there are other people who consider it like a murder, but they are opinions. By the way, San Fermín is a festival in Pamplona where people run away from Bulls. They wear White and red clothes. Another typical Spanish festival is las Fallas Valencianas. In this festival, people build figures about typical things of Spain and then they burn them.

Afra: oh my god! That is quite incredible.

Jesus: ok! Now we are going to do a Little quiz show. Let's start!

(phone RINGS)

María: hello, I'm Maria! I'm going to talk about Spanish music. Flamenco is one of the most important types of music in Spain. One of the most representative singers of this genre is Camaron de la isla. Here we have a fragment of one of his songs ``como el agua``.

(song)

Melendi is another very famous Singer from Spain and his most beautiful song is ``tocado y hundido``.

(song)

Now David Bisbal. His music is awesome and he has an amazing voice. He became famous thanks to a singing contest ``operación triunfo``, a very popular Spanish programme. His most recent song is ``perdon``.

(song)

And last but not least is Pablo Alboran. He is a Singer-songwriter from Malaga. His most beautiful song is ``quien``.

(song)

Jesus: and now you will listen to Rosalia's song ``di mi nombre``.

Jesus: and now I will give way to Coral, she's going to talk about art.

Coral: hello! I will talk about sculptures, monuments and paintings of Spain. First, I will talk about the sculpture of the Cid that is situated in Burgos. It's inspired in a literary work that's called ``Cantar de Mio Cid``. Then, I'm going to talk about ``Las Meninas``, a painting that was painted by Diego Velazquez. There are also some famous monuments like ``La Sagrada Familia`` a gothic cathedral that is situated in Barcelona and ``La Alhambra`` an arabic place that is situated in Granada.

Jesus: thank you Coral! That was very interesting. Now I will give way to Afra, she's talking about gastronomy in Spain.

Afra: hello! I will talk about typical Spanish's food from diferente regions.

The most famous recipe is the rice dish, that is from Valencia. There are also some famous food like ``jamón`` and ``migas``, which is originally from Extremadura, the Spanish omelette, the octopus a la ``gallega``, the ``fabada asturiana``, the ``cocido madrileño``, the ``caldero murciano``, the ``gazpacho`` and the croquettes. I think that my favourite food is Spanish omelette because it is tasty. What is your favourite food?

María: my favourite food is croquettes.

Clara: my favourite food is Valencia rice dish.

Jesus: my favourite food are ``migas Extremeñas``.

Coral: my favourite food is gazpacho.

Jesus: I think that all the Spanish food is very Good. Finally we are having an interview about the most important Spanish cities.

Here we have a tourist whose name is Anne.

Anne: hello, I'm Anne, and I'm studying in Spain, and I have visited some beautiful cities.

Jesus: that's great, I'm sure that you are very brave, because only a few people dare to study in other country. What are your favourite cities?

Anne: my favourite place is Barcelona because it is the capital of Cataluña. I think it's a very important city because it has many important monuments and beaches. Another city that I like is Valencia, because I think it has the most important oceanographic in Spain. Another city that I like very much is Sevilla, because it has Maria Luisa's park. This park was declared a place of cultural interest in 1983.

Jesus: thank you so much Anne for telling us your experience. Now we are going to finish our programme, I hope that you enjoyed it. Thank you for listening!
