

TRANSCRIPCIÓN DEL GUIÓN DE HISTORIAS DE TERROR

Ainhoa

Hola, buenos días a todos los oyentes de Radio Corata. En el programa de hoy contamos con un concurso especial sobre historias de terror.

En él, cinco magníficos escritores y escritoras nos enseñarán sus mejores obras con la ayuda de excelentes colaboradores. Al final, decidiremos quién es el escritor o escritora número uno del IES Gregorio Marañón.

Aarón

En primer lugar, escucharemos la historia titulada The Warm Night escrita por Iván Martín Martín.

Ángel

One warm summer night, a boy called Serkan, fully dressed in black with blond hair, was heading down the street to the place where he used to meet his friends.

When he arrived there, Serkan noticed that none of his friends were present, so he went to look for them near the place because they had agreed on meeting there. When Serkan approached one of the bushes over there, he was assaulted by a thing that looked like a human, fully dressed in black with a mask that covered his whole face and a baseball bat. It tried to kill him, but the boy was able to escape and started running over there.

Kevin

That weird thing started screaming at him as it was running after him: "All your friends in hell just walked in, I only have YOU left!" Then the boy radically changed his mind and ran towards that being, which was unprepared, and he threw himself at it. Serkan also began to shout as he pressed his neck with the baseball bat: "WHO ARE YOU? WHY DID YOU KILL THEM?" At that moment, the boy took off its mask and he discovered that it was one of his friends.

Iván

Then Serkan realized that everything had been a joke that had been prepared for him and he wanted to kill his friends. All his friends approached and congratulated him on the courage to pounce on that being, his friend. In the end this joke was an anecdote for all of them, but it is said that the baseball bat was never seen since then and there have been several reports of a thing trying to kill people.

Will he be prepared to stalk new victims or will he already have?

Will you be the next?

Aarón

¿Habéis sentido miedo? No es para menos con ese final escalofriante. Seguid muy atentos porque, a continuación, escucharemos la historia escrita por Janyra Viejo Muñoz titulada A Different Halloween.

Clara

This story happened on 31st October 2011. A group of four friends were playing in the park of their village . They were John, Megan, Ryan and Madison. The four guys were fifteen years old and they had known each other since school.

It was windy, so the children were wearing long trousers, sweaters, trainers and even some scarves.

They were playing truth or dare. This consisted of spinning a roulette and depending on what you got, you had to answer questions or do challenges.

It was Ryan's turn, so the boy spinned the roulette. When the roulette arrow stopped, it marked dare , but the boy was calm because he still didn't know the terrible adventure he would face.

Amaya

Ryan's friends had thought of a mysterious challenge since as soon as it got dark, it would be Halloween. The challenge was going to the municipal cemetery at twelve o'clock at night and telling a horror story to his friends in honor of the party that was celebrated that same night. Ryan didn't like the idea because of Halloween, the dead, the night... he was very afraid.

The four friends were going to the cemetery and it was getting dark so they started to get nervous, especially Ryan. He liked Megan, so he had to be brave and enter as if he wasn't afraid.

Madison was the first to enter the cemetery because she said that she didn't believe in ghosts and she wasn't afraid.

The guys were entering the cemetery when, suddenly, a scream was heard.

John asked, "What has that been?" (Aarón)

Megan exclaimed, "I don't know but I'm very afraid!!" (Clara)

Ryan said, "I'm a little scared too." (Alex)

"It will only have been a scream from someone happy. We're going to sit here", Madison said completely sure. (Janyra)

They were going to sit down when a strange noise sounded, although this time they didn't know what it was.

Megan whispered, "Guys..." (Clara)

John asked, "Have you heard the same thing as me?" (Aarón)

Madison replied, "I haven't heard anything, I'm sure it's your imagination" (Janyra)

Janyra

Ryan had to do his challenge, so he started telling his horror story. He barely had told a few sentences when they heard a voice telling them: "leave here or later you will regret it" (Amaya). The guys quickly turned around to know where that voice was coming from, but they didn't see anyone.

Madison suggested, "I'm going to go around the cemetery to look for the person who has threatened us, is anyone with me?" (Janyra)

John said, "I'm going with you." (Aarón)

Ryan stated, "Megan and I will sit here waiting for you" (Alex)

Madison and John were talking as they were walking and, suddenly, a white light got in their way. It was taken by a very large and strange shape, it looked like a ghost!! The boys were frightened to see such a light and ran to Megan and Ryan, but the light chased them and it said, "don't come to bother anymore!!" (Amaya) When they arrived where their friends were, the four guys left running out of the cemetery without looking back.

They arrived at their houses and that same night promised never to go to the cemetery again. But they didn't know that what they thought was a ghost was the cemetery security guard with a torch.

Alex

¿Creéis que podréis conciliar el sueño esta noche tras escuchar estos relatos tan tenebrosos? Como no hay dos sin tres, el tercero que oiremos será el que ha escrito Leticia Gordo Alonso, también conocido como The legend of the Well.

Alejandro

A cold winter night, a teenage couple met at an ancient well on the outskirts of their village. When Marcos arrived, Carla was already there and she was waiting for him, sitting on the stairs next to the well.

After a few minutes, Carla was explaining to Marcos what she was going to do next weekend when Marcos heard something. "Are you hearing that?", Marcos asked. "No, I don't hear anything", she answered. "I am hearing a girl's voice but I don't know who she is or what she is saying", he explained.

Leticia

Suddenly, they saw a strange shadow around the well and they went closer to see if the voice came from there. Marcos looked into the well and the girl's shadow pulled him inside. Carla screamed and ran to ask for help but when people went to get Marcos out of the well, there was nothing inside.

Nobody knows what happened with Marcos that night, but the legend says that a long time ago, a girl was with her boyfriend at a well when she fell into it.

He didn't help her so, as revenge, her ghost stayed in the well to throw inside all the boys who come near.

Alex

Después de esta trama tan fascinante que nos mantuvo a todos intrigados hasta el final, María Lucía Iglesias Angulo intentará superarlo con Monsters in the High School.

Carla

In 2021, on the night of 31st of October, three girls called Emily, Sarah and Sophia went to a party in the High School in Caminomorisco. They were dressed up as horrible zombies. When they arrived at the High School, they saw that the party had already started.

First, they decided to eat bloody sweets. They were delicious. Later, they went to dance. While they were dancing, a terrifying roar could be heard.

Irene

"I have heard a roar."(Carla) -Sarah exclaimed.

"Maybe, it is a door or a window." (Irene) -Emily said.

But they weren't convinced of that, so they went to investigate the sound.

The girls had left the dark corridor when they heard the sound again.

"Am I the only one who is listening to the roar coming from the canteen?" (María Lucía) -Sophia asked.

"No, I am listening to the roar coming from the canteen, too." (Irene) Emily answered.

"I'm going to enter" (María Lucía) -Sophia said suddenly.

"We will go with you"(Carla and Irene)- Sarah and Emily shouted.

María Lucía

Quickly, the three girls entered and saw a large shadow on the wall. They hid behind a table. The roar sounded again. Finally, Emily went to the place where the sound was coming from. She returned laughing and said:

"There isn't any monster, the roars were the snorings of the caretaker, he is sleeping on a chair in that table." (Irene)

Emily, Sarah and Sophia started to laugh. That was going to be an unforgettable Halloween.

Óscar

¡Qué final más inesperado! Por último, pero no menos importante, Rubén Domínguez Iglesias, autor de A Rare Night, nos cuenta su historia.

Rubén

It was a cold autumn night. Mark and Harry decided to go Trick or Treating along the city. They were wearing a cool costume to improve the experience.

At first, they visited the residential areas. They collected a lot of delicious sweets there, so Mark thought of going to the slums of the city. Harry said, "This is not a good idea" but Mark didn't pay attention. Five minutes later, Mark and Harry had already arrived in the slums. They were in front of a mournful house, when suddenly a very loud scream, which came from inside the house, was heard.

Héctor

Quickly, Mark and Harry entered the house, when suddenly they saw a dead woman on the floor. Horrified, Mark came out of the house, but Harry stayed inside. "Oh no!" Mark said, "I have broken the doorknob, Harry will not be able to leave the house".

After that, a man with a costume yelled, "happy Halloween". The woman stood up, screaming too, "happy halloween". Then, Harry jumped out of a window escaping from the house, without understanding anything. Confused, Mark asked Harry "what has happened?". Harry just said, "Let's get out of here!".

Óscar

Tras escuchar estas increíbles historias y sus sorprendentes finales, hemos decidido que el ganador de nuestro concurso y, por lo tanto, el mejor escritor de nuestro instituto sea... Leticia Gordo Alonso con su relato, The Legend of the Well. Gracias a todos por dedicarnos vuestro tiempo. Hasta la próxima.
